What’s the best way to discover whether a career in accounting is right for you? By experiencing it, firsthand. No matter how many hours you spend in a classroom, it’s hard to imagine what a career in accounting is like until you’re actually on the job. Pathway to Success gives students who may be interested in a career in accounting an inside look into life at a global accounting organization generally, and at BDO in particular.

Programs Across the Country
Pathway to Success includes a national program, held in our Chicago headquarters, as well regional programs held at BDO offices. No matter which program you participate in, Pathway to Success is an important first step in establishing long-lasting and successful relationships. For information about upcoming programs, please visit https://www.bdo.com/pathwaytosuccess

Pathway to Success includes interactive workshops and presentations, panel discussions, and networking opportunities with BDO professionals of all levels.
By participating in Pathway to Success, you’ll also have the chance to meet – and network with – a variety of BDO professionals and other students, many of whom could soon become your colleagues.
Get a Jump on Your Career

Our Learn2Lead (L2L) National Summer Leadership Program allows high-achieving students to experience the firm firsthand through interactive team building, leadership, and networking activities. With offices coast to coast, we select participants from across the nation, giving them the opportunity to ask the tough questions that typically might not be answered in the classroom and learn more about the client services offered at Crowe. This highly competitive program is designed to help students learn early on about the career options in our industry so students can determine which areas might be the best fit for future internships or full-time positions.

Program Benefits

- Be considered for future internships and full-time positions
- Gain leadership skills and insights
- Network with Crowe professionals at all levels, from Staff to Partner
- Experience Crowe culture and values in action

Applicant requirements: Graduation date of Dec 2019 or June 2020. Minimum cumulative and major GPA of 3.2 preferred. Candidates pursuing Audit or Tax must be CPA-eligible upon graduation. Authorized to work in the U.S. without the need for sponsorship.

Applicants who are selected to interview will be contacted by the Crowe recruiting team directly. Interviews will take place between March – April 2018.

Leadership programs

Set your stage
Learn about innovative global, national, and local summer programs that can develop your strengths.

Your Career. Inspired.

KPMG’s leadership programs are where leaders begin.

These global, national and local summer programs offer you fabulous opportunities to network with KPMG professionals, get a head start on the KPMG campus recruiting process and explore career opportunities with KPMG.

Begin today to set your stage.
Discover KPMG

This local leadership program gives you the chance to explore your interests in public accounting, while gaining insight into the culture and career opportunities at KPMG.

You can also expect exposure to firm clients while participating in a job-shadowing experience, contact with firm leadership, access to developmental resources and networking with KPMG professionals and other top candidates in your field. Most important, you’ll receive answers to your questions about life at KPMG, as well as an interview for an internship.

Discover KPMG is designed for students who have not yet been through the internship recruiting process, have approximately two years remaining of their education and will graduate with their CPA eligibility.
Global Advantage Program

KPMG’s Global Advantage Program (GAP) is a three-day training for future KPMG interns that focuses on some of the key attributes of a successful KPMG professional. Topics covered include leadership, self-awareness, interpersonal impact and cultural versatility. KPMG partner instructors lead all sessions. The 2017 program, in Berlin, Germany included students from several KPMG European firms in addition to KPMG U.S. interns. Eligibility is limited to students who are one year away from their KPMG internship.
Future Diversity Leaders (FDL) begins with a three-day, annual summer leadership conference in Hollywood, California, focused on preparing high-achieving, ethically diverse students to be the business leaders of tomorrow. Students who successfully complete the leadership conference receive $1,000 scholarships and the opportunity to interview for summer internships in their office of interest. Upon successful completion of the first internship, students receive another internship offer and are eligible to receive up to an additional $5,000 in scholarships. During their final summer before graduating, participants complete an internship in the practice of their choice working with KPMG client engagement teams. Those who successfully complete all internships and maintain high academic achievement may receive full-time job offers.

The FDL program is vitally important to KPMG’s professional pipeline—helping the firm connect with the very best of diverse college freshmen and sophomores.
Ace the Case participants attend a Case Analysis workshop, Presentation Skills workshop and participate in a Business Case Simulation. The workshops are lively, interactive sessions that teach business case analysis, including critical skills and processes to analyze and present an effective case. The Business Case Simulation allows you to put your new skills to work immediately and get feedback from KPMG professionals. After completing Ace the Case, you may want to apply to KPMG’s International Case Competition if your school participates. It’s a great way to practice for your future career.
Get started

We know it’s the early bird that gets the worm! And introducing yourself to KPMG as early as your freshman year can lead to all kinds of rewarding opportunities. You’ll also get to know us really well before decision time. It’s a great one-to-one relationship that begins long before your internship.

Develop your plan
It’s best to plan your career activities, internships and/or job applications based on your four- or five-year track and your graduation date. Check our year-by-year guide to career planning with KPMG. www.kpmgcampus.com/get-started

Update your calendar
Know when KPMG will be coming to your college or university. We visit in the fall and, on some campuses, in the spring. Match our schedule to yours.

Enroll in Branding U
Take a hint from the world’s most powerful consumer and corporate brands: branding yourself is a great way to discover things that make you the unique and wonderful brand called...you. www.kpmgcampus.com/tools-for-you

Apply for an internship
A KPMG internship is a terrific way to learn business skills, find a mentor, build your network and get real-world (even global) experience before graduation. Plus, an internship can often lead to a full-time job! Internships are a great way for one person—like you!—to connect with the countless opportunities at KPMG.
History, values, diversity, opportunity

We have history—but we’re focused on the future. We have values—and we live them as one network of firms all around the world. We are all different—yet we work as one team with mutual respect and appreciation. We are award winning—but strive to get even better. Most important, we offer countless opportunities for you to build a challenging and rewarding career that unfolds over a lifetime.

That’s why KPMG.

Explore
Explore is a one day program focused on helping participants identify and analyze their strengths, values and passions to better understand who they are and what they want to do. Students will learn alongside PwC professionals who will provide real-life examples of how they have enriched their careers by aligning their strengths, values and passions personally and professionally. Participants will leave Explore with a stronger sense of who they are, who PwC is and what future opportunities might exist for them in professional services.

Eligible students should be freshmen/sophomores in a 4-year degree program or juniors in a 5-year degree program interested in the professional services industry.

Fiercest Competitor
Fiercest Competitor is an event sponsored by PwC that simulates disruptive scenarios that may be faced in the business in the coming years, and allows students to develop a presentation to combat these problems. The workshop includes robust dialog and interactions with PwC professionals at all levels. Taking part in this event will allow you to develop leadership skills, learn about consulting and case based problem solving, build relationships with PwC professionals and other students across campus, and more.

Eligible students should be freshmen/sophomores in a 4-year degree program or juniors in a 5-year degree program interested in Advisory.

Career Preview
Career Preview is a summer program that will provide you with an opportunity to experience the challenges, excitement, and camaraderie of life at PwC. As a participant, you will work alongside your peers to actively learn about yourself, the professional world and our firm. Career Preview is an excellent opportunity for you to confirm your college academic career path, your career objectives and become better acquainted with PwC.

Eligible students should be freshmen from a traditionally underrepresented racial and ethnic minority group, and have a preferred GPA of 3.3.

Start
Start is an 8-week summer internship program designed to allow you to learn more about our firm while further developing the skills necessary for success in the business world. Start enables you to gain exposure to partners and staff across our lines of services, participate in professional and technical development, and engage in work assignments within our Internal Firm Services group. After successful completion, you will have the opportunity to complete a client service internship in one of our three service lines: Assurance, Tax, or Advisory.

Eligible students should be sophomores in a 4-year degree program or juniors in a 5-year degree program, from a traditionally underrepresented racial and ethnic minority group, and have a preferred GPA of 3.3.

Elevate
Elevate is PwC’s summer leadership program for high-achieving college students interested in learning about a career in the professional services industry. You will embark on a journey of self-discovery and learning with PwC and other students from across the country. You will gain valuable insight into our firm and our people while discovering leadership skills that you can use on campus and beyond. The programs are designed to help you experience PwC’s culture and values through a variety of community service, team-building and networking activities.

Eligible students should be sophomores in a 4-year degree program or juniors in a 5-year degree program interested in pursuing Assurance/Audit or Tax with a minimum GPA of 3.3.

Learn more about these programs and more by visiting pwc.com/campus. Applications can be found on Handshake.
You can find all of our open opportunities, upcoming events/programs, applications, and deadlines on our UC Berkeley recruiting phone app and on Handshake.
